

THE LODGE at Herbel, Union Road, Smallburgh, Norfolk, NR12 9NJ

Nestling behind the Owners bungalow, The Lodge at Herbel provides quiet, relaxing and contemporary detached accommodation for Anglers, Ramblers, Birdwatchers and the like or those just looking for a quiet country break to discover the joys of North East Norfolk.

You will enjoy a double bedroom with TV, a bathroom/WC with a large luxury shower and a living area containing two enormous Chair Beds, plus a kitchen area with a microwave, along with tables and chairs and a 32 inch Freeview/CD television. FREE Wi Fi is provided in The Lodge. There is also a telephone connection to the Owners house. Outside is a private patio with tables and chairs plus a facility to dry clothes, nets etc.

Breakfast is available between 8.00 and 10.00am and, in fine weather, can be taken outside.

Check In at 4pm but other times can be accommodated by agreement. Departure – by 10 o'clock please Smallburgh is a small rural North East Norfolk village with a Pub called The Crown (a ten minute walk away) which is to be highly recommended. Another local is in Dilham, a 20 minute walk or 5 minute drive, where you will find a splendid Pub called The Cross Keys. Wroxham, North Walsham and Stalham are all a ten minute drive away. The Coast can be reached in 20 minutes and it is only a 25/30 minute drive to Norwich.

Notable angling, rambling and wildlife locations nearby include Ludham and Martham on the River Thurne, Dilham and Barton Broad on the River Ant and then Ranworth, Wroxham and Coltishall on the River Bure
